“87” Shines at Night

The 1986 Junior Prom was a night of glamour and romance. The first Junior Prom in five years was a night when the class of “87” showed that they were “The Class with Class.”

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Junior Prom King and Queen. The nominees for King were (l-r) William C. Brister, Christopher King, Barry Priester, Terrance Franklin, Cornell Gallimore, Roderick Alston, and Christopher Mayo. The nominees for Queen were (l-r) Tomara Fisher, Chantel Green, Erica Hash, Monica Patterson, Arlene Charles, De-Shawnee Allen (sitting l-r) Krystal Miller, Zenobia Bey, Kelly Johnson, and Maria Suarez.

The 1986 Junior Prom King and Queen were Mr. William Brister and Ms. Erica Hash.

MAYO IN ACTION

This very special time in your life will be remembered always. I am proud to be a part of these fond memories which have been created within in our fine institution. Concluding my second year as Principal, I feel excited about having been able to know each of you. The Plainfield High School staff feels confident that the training and experiences shared during your years at the high school have prepared you for the challenge that lies ahead. As a result of your participation, you have demonstrated your ability to handle and solve those daily problems which will confront you. As you part the hallways of Plainfield High School, always remember that we are members of the Plainfield High School family and community. With this membership goes the responsibility of mutual support now and in the future. Your legacy of accomplishments and participation will go far in demonstrating the unique qualities of this fine graduating class.

Stanley W. Mayo, Principal

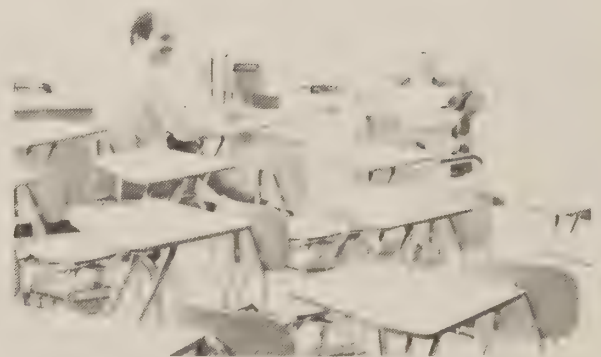

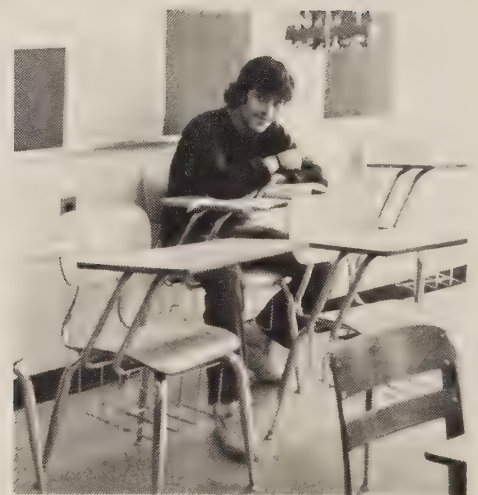

*It is not your environment, it is you —
The quality of your minds, the integrity of your souls, and the determination of your wills — that will decide your future
and shape your lives.*

Education

You are what you aspire to be, and not what you now are; you are what you do with your mind, and you are what you do with your youth.

A college must be judged not only by excellent teachers, but by the spirit and philosophy which permeate it from top to bottom.

It is not your environment, it is you — the quality of your minds, the integrity of your souls, and the determination of your wills — that will decide your future and shape your lives.

Young man, find your ideal. When you find it, bow down before it and worship it as if it were the very God.

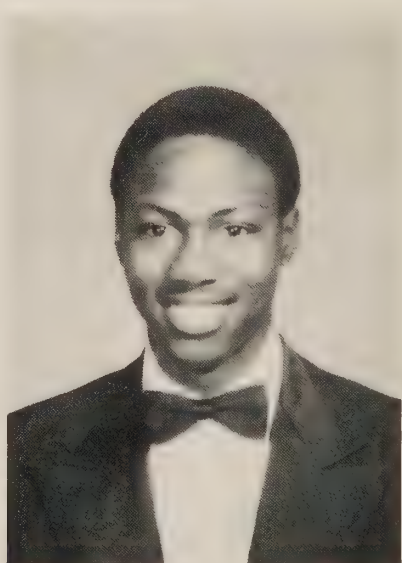

I am disturbed, I am uneasy about man because we have no guarantee that when we train a man's mind, we will train his heart; no guarantee that when we increase a man's knowledge, we will increase his goodness. There is no necessary correlation between knowledge and goodness.

We are not here to play, to dream, to drift;
we have hard work to do, and loads to lift,
shun not the struggle! 'Tis God's gift!
Be strong.

Thanks!

You are a shining star in our eyes. You were always there when we needed you. We'll always remember the rush deadlines, games of trivial pursuit, the surprise party, visits to your home, and the pig outs.

You were more to us than just an advisor, you were a friend. Not many advisors get a bunch of workers like us (not to sound conceited), but not many clubs get an advisor like you. We know that you have already called us a bad name by now, but we'd like to say we love you and we'll miss you. We've overcome many obstacles together; let's keep in touch.

Your life long friends,

Rebecca Hendricks, Valedictorian

Cathryn Smith, Salutatorian

Heading the student government and representing my peers of Plainfield High School has been a demanding yet most gratifying experience for me. Words like determination and dedication only begin to describe this year's student council. Having been advisorless and then having to share our advisor with the senior class council, we have had to be more independent than any other Student Council officers have ever needed to be before. Still, we have continued to be bold and outspoken. We have never lost site of our original goals.

To the members of the Class of '87,

It has truly been a pleasure serving you as president these past two years. I feel that we, as a class, have accomplished a great deal. We were the first class to bring back the tradition of the junior prom, which turned out to be a success. We also have had numerous functions to raise money for our prom.

I would wish for everyone happiness and success in the future. Let's strive and work hard to reach our goals.

Congratulations to the class of 1987; you have overcome one milestone and now you must face the biggest challenge of all, LIFE. Good Luck in the Future.

Mr. Mayo

TO THE CLASS OF 1987

You are the future and we are proud of you. Our desire for each of you is to seek and find wisdom, understand the meaning of life and live it to the fullest.

Be bold, brave and courageous in life for it will reward you for achievement. Be giving to each other for this is a lasting quality that exceeds life itself.

TO THE CLASS OF 1987

"In all things that are purely social we can be as separate as the fingers, yet one as the hand in all things essential to mutual progress."

Booker T. Washington

You the Class of 1987 are standing on the threshold of the 21st century. The future holds things that are unfathomable today. In the areas of science and health technology, we can anticipate discoveries far beyond the imagination.

You and I and our families will meet life's requirements through unity.

So, it is with quiet apprehension and fortitude that I challenge you and proffer the greatest wish and expectation for success.

Make great advances in life, keep an open mind, never cease to learn and exceed your personal goals. Make us cry out with joy and shout with excitement because you, the 1987 graduates of Plainfield High School, notably contributed to the community, state, nation and world.

Class Song
“Lean On Me”

Class of '87 “let your life do the singing.” Remember that life offers you many roads to follow and the road that you select will depend upon all that you have experienced and learned at PHS. Seniors, which will you choose? Will it be the smooth road that offers no resistance nor challenges? I think not. Or will it be the road cluttered with rocks, curvy with mountains and filled with potholes? Yes! that’s the road for you — my seniors. I know that your four years at PHS have prepared you with the skills necessary to climb any mountain placed before you and, avoid any potholes or rocks found along life’s highway.

You are the mirror image of Plainfield, Let no one tell you different. Always hold your head high and keep your face toward the sun. Remember as you pass this way — that your life will do the singing. I am glad that the singing of our lives met and joined together for the past two years to make Plainfield a better school.

Therefore, your Plainfield High family and I send you into this world with our love and our blessings that the music from your life will make this a better world.

Sylvia Parker-Bernard
Advisor

*To dream the impossible dream,
To fight the unbeatable foe,
To bear with unbearable sorrow,
To run where the brave dare not go.*

*To right the unrightable wrong,
To love pure and chaste from afar,
To try when your arms are too weary,
To reach the unreachable star!*

*This is my quest, to follow that star,
No matter how hopeless, no matter how far;
To fight for the right without questions or pause,
To be willing to march into hell for a heavenly cause!*

*And I know, if I'll only be true
To this glorious quest,
That my heart will lie peaceful and calm,
When I'm laid to my rest,
And the world will be better for this;
That one man, scorned and covered with scars,
Still strove with his last ounce of courage,
To reach the unreachable stars.*
